A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Recognizing and remembering the Homestead Act.

WHEREAS, four pages that make up the Homestead Act of 1862 will be on display at Homestead National Monument; and

WHEREAS, the Homestead Act of 1862 is considered one of the most one hundred important documents in the National Archives; and

WHEREAS, this document influenced the course of United States history by shaping South Dakota landscape, history, and culture for future generations; and

WHEREAS, America gave away two hundred and seventy million acres to four million people; and

WHEREAS, today it is estimated that as many as 93 million Americans are descendants of homesteaders:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Eighty-seventh Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that the Homestead Act of 1862, that changed South Dakota forever, be held in a place of honor.
